

4. The confidential information may not be provided to any persons, even to those who have a use for the confidential information in the present litigation. At the time the information is served upon counsel for Defendant, counsel shall inform all staff and clients that the material may not be copied, is confidential and not to be disclosed to other persons, and must be sealed or destroyed pursuant to the terms of this order.

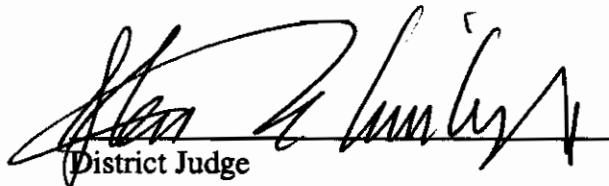

5. Before disclosing the confidential information to any person, counsel shall advise each person to whom such disclosure is made of the terms of this Protective order (i.e. that the information may not be used for purposes of the instant litigation or for any other purpose). Counsel shall not disclose the documents, copies or extracts thereof to any person who does not agree to be bound by and to comply with the terms of this Protective Order.

6. Neither the parties nor their counsel shall in any manner, directly or indirectly, transfer the documents, or copies of the documents, or communicate, orally or in writing, any of the data contained in the documents to any person other than for the purposes and under the circumstances set out in this Protective Order.

7. At the conclusion of the instant case, all documents containing this confidential subject matter must be sealed, destroyed or returned to Plaintiff, rather than retained by counsel served with the confidential Motion filed under seal and protected herein.

All documents served that are deemed confidential are defined in paragraph 1 of this Protective Order shall be labeled as CONFIDENTIAL and dealt with by the parties as set forth in this Protective Order.
